Dvar Torah

The Pasuk says, "Moshe took his wife and children on THE donkey." It doesn't say Moshe put his wife and children on A donkey. Rashi says that this is the donkey that Avraham Avinu battled at the Akedah, and this is also the donkey that will bring us to Eretz Yisrael in the times of Moshiach. The Pirkay D'R' Elazar, in Perek Lamed Aleph says that one of the ten things that was created during Bain Hashmashos was this very donkey. We can say that Adam was created with the intention to rule over his donkey, his animal instincts/his Yetzer Hara. That is what we compare someone who "rides" his donkey, his Yetzer Hara. Avraham Avinu reached that level by the Akedah, Moshe Rabainu reached that level that is why the Pasuk says THAT donkey, THE donkey. Just like Avraham and Moshe reached that level we too in the times of Moshiach will reach that level and be Zocheh to "RIDE the donkey".

Halacha

Topic: Hilchos Shabbos

What is considered cooking, baking, roasting, or frying?

(In regard to the Melachah of Bishul -cooking)? (Part 1 of 3)

1. Bishul - Cooking

Any item that is submerged into liquid (e.g., water, wine, milk) is considered cooked. This is true even if the food was baked in an oven. Many poskim rule that cooking an item in oil (deep frying) is also considered cooking.

2. Oifeh - Baking

An item is considered baked when placed in an oven. This is so even if a little oil was placed in the pan to prevent the item from becoming burned or stuck to the pan. In fact an item is considered baked even if it is in a frying pan or pot (and not in the oven), as long as the amount of oil is minimal, and is just placed there to prevent burning or sticking.

3. Tzlii - Roasting

An item is considered roasted when it is placed in an area of intense heat. (i.e., on the counter next to the stove that is on). Placing a cooked piece of chicken on top of a pot that's on the fire, it is not considered roasting.

VIRUS TODAY

by: Dr. Joe Shmoe

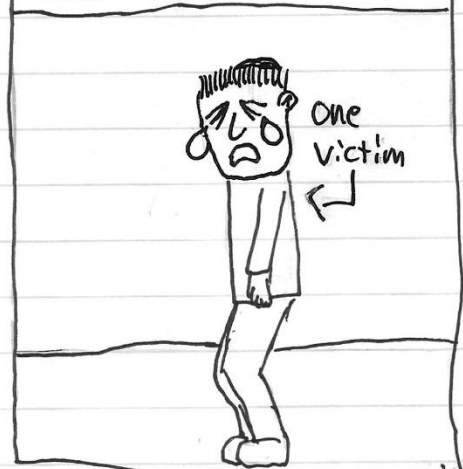

As you all know, a Pandemic is gripping humanity, infecting thousands of people...

This is a serious virus, only infecting kids. In fact, it looks like it's only infecting one school!

It's taking over the school in a tidal wave, leaving only a few left. The virus leaves victims with addiction, brain stimulation enzymes, and headaches...

Here is a horrendous look at how the virus is implemented
