Beloved friends

A couple got married, and a day after the wedding they decided that they were not a good couple, and that they would get divorced right after the Sheva Brachos. They went to make an appointment at some Rabbanim to get divorced, and then turned to Rav Aron Leib Shteinman zt"l, to ask if they should have the Sheva Brachos if they were going to get divorced right after anyways. "Samach Tisamach Rayim HaHovim, gladden beloved friends" he said, "But who here is beloved?" Rav Shteinman answered "Make the Sheva Brachos and in the merit of the Brachos you will love each other, and peace will return." That is what they did, and today they live in peace, love, and brotherhood.

What turned this situation around?

The fact that they listened to the Divrei Chachamim and had the Brachos by the Sheva Brachos in a merit for peace.

Secretary: Next please!

Chelmite walks in

Dr. Chelm: What seems to be the problem, sir?

Chelmite: Well Doc, I haven't had an appetite for the past week!

Dr.Chelm hands him a bottle of pills

Dr.Chelm: Take these pills, they will help you.

Two Weeks Later

Chelmite goes back to Dr.Chelm

Chelmite: Hey Doc, those pills you gave me are not working.

I still have no appetite.

Dr.Chelm: Do you mean that you have not eaten for three weeks?!

Chelmite: No.

Dr. Chelm: So when did you eat?

Chelmite: Oh, that? Whenever I'm Hungry of course!

Riddle of the Week

By: Shmuel Schiff

There are 4 men who wish to cross over a bridge at night. Only 2 men may cross over at one time. Each man takes a different amount of time to cross:

It takes one person 10 minutes, One 5 minutes, One 2 minutes, and One 1 minute

The people crossing must have a flashlight with them, however, the group only has one flashlight.

How can they all cross in exactly 17 minutes?

The first person to come to Shalom Frenkel with the correct answer will receive a reward.
